

General to Speak At Joint Meeting

Special to The News

SHERMAN, Texas. — Maj. Gen. Charles F. Born, commander of the Crew Training Air Force, will be the chief speaker at a barbecue dinner and joint meeting of local civic and veteran organizations at the Woodlawn Country Club Tuesday night.

General Born will be the guest of honor at the gathering, which will be sponsored as part of Project Top Flight by the junior chambers of commerce of Sherman and Denison. Between 200 and 300 persons are expected to attend the dinner, which begins at 7 p.m.

Joe Kaufman of Sherman and Stanley Ward of Denison are co-chairman of Project Top Flight, which is a year-long program sponsored by AJyces throughout the nation. It is designed to achieve a better understanding between the Air Force and the general public.
