

Group to See Flight Work

On Carrier

Corpus Christi Naval Air Station will be host to the 27 Dallas businessmen Monday for a show of Naval progress aboard the U.S.S. Antietam, an aircraft carrier.

Along with the Dallas group will be eight businessmen from Fort Worth, who will depart from the Dallas Naval Air Station about 1 p.m. Monday and arrive at the Corpus Christi base some $2\frac{1}{2}$ hours later.

Invitations to businessmen from all over Texas were made by Rear Admiral J. C. Clifton. The purpose of the trip is to show community leaders actual flight operations in landing jet aircraft and other areas of progress.

The group will be flown to the naval carrier via helicopter from the Corpus Christi Naval Air Station.

Dallas executives making the orientation cruise include William H. Luttrell, Maj. Gen. Charles F. Born, H. K. Cooper, Marvin L. Davison, C. E. Barrett, Brig. Gen. Max J. Volcansek, J. C. Kirkpatrick, Howard L. Wood, John J. Perkins, Nathan E. Grisham, Robert M. Nelson, Dr. Robert E. Faulds, Jack Threadgill, Earle E. Bailey, Charles K. Kemp, Tom B. Fisher, Joseph R. Silverman, Capt. James F. Crowder, Robert S. Roy, N. W. Ryan, H. W. Hudspeth, Charles B. Smith, Mark E. Kramer, Ernest H. Watson III, Ben Frank Carter, David Charles Kieffer and Jack D. Wilkinson.
