

Two Parties For Debs Are Given

Mr. and Mrs. John Lancaster III and Miss Mary Elinor Lancaster honored Miss Joyce McNamara and Miss Sese Campbell at a cocktail-buffet Friday evening in the home of Mrs. John Lancaster Jr., 4115 Overhill.

Yellow jonquils and white tulips were featured in spring flowers decorating the home. Sixty guests attended.

Pink was the theme color in decorations for a tea honoring Miss Gertrude Jackson Friday afternoon. Mrs. W. W. Caruth Jr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Neshitt were hostesses in the Caruth home, 7411 Greenbrier.

Pink carnations and roses were used in a silver and cut glass epergne. The table was covered with a lace cloth.

Mrs. H. P. Lively of Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. Edwin Peters of Boston, Mass., mothers of the hostesses, poured tea.
