

Application Filed On Nesbitt Estate

Ray Nesbitt, 75, Dallas banker who died Oct. 9, may have left an estate in excess of $50,000, an application to probate his will disclosed Tuesday in Probate Judge F. W. Bartlett's court.

Edwin A. Nesbitt of Dallas and Morgan Nesbitt of Austin, sons of the late banker, filed the application as executors of their father's estate. His will, dated April 7, 1935, left the family the estate.

Other members of the family are his wife, Mrs. Ethel Morgan Nesbitt, and a daughter, Mrs. Louise Nesbitt Padgitt of Ridgewood, N.J.
