

Association Taps Bell Executive

Jim Fuller, public relations director for Bell Helicopter Corporation of Fort Worth, was named co-chairman Thursday of the Air Force Association convention which opens next Thursday in Memorial Auditorium.

General Chairman Al Harting of Dallas said, "The national AFA convention and Airpower Panorama is a joint tribute to the aviation industry in the entire Dallas-Fort Worth area, and many events will be staged in Fort Worth."

The Airpower Panorama will be the nation's largest aviation and space exhibition, and its displays will include the first public unveiling of the Atlas intercontinental ballistics missile.
