

Lawyers' Wives Planning Entertainment

—Dallas News Staff Photo.

Planning this week's activities for visiting lawyers' wives are, seated, left to right, Mmes Morris Harrell, Charles P. Storey and Clarence Bentley, and standing, left to right, Mmes Herbert Bonney, Robert Trott and Hawkins Golden. Entertainment begins on Wednesday evening.

Dallas lawyers' wives will entertain women and teen-agers in Dallas for the State Bar of Texas convention with a series of events, Wednesday through Friday.

Mrs. Morris Harrell, president of the Dallas Lawyers' Wives Club, is general chairman of women's activities. Her advisors are Mmes W. Harry Jack, E. Taylor Armstrong and H. Louis Nichols.

Tom Hughes, managing director, and a group of entertainers from the Summer Musicals will present The Wonderful World of Show Business for the women visitors at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. The party will be in the Hotel Adolphus French Room.

MRS. HERBERT Bonney, chairman, and Mrs. Roy Pitts, cochairman, will be assisted by Mmes William Henley, Joe Hill Jones, Dick P. Woods, E. B. Winn, Hubert Johnson and Gordon Gano.

Teen-agers will have their own Hospitality Room at the Adolphus Thursday and Friday. Their Wednesday night entertainment will be a "hootenanny." The Lost River Trio will play. A group of teen-agers will assist Mrs. Leroy Hallman and Mrs. Ralph D. Baker with arrangements.

THE TEEN-AGERS include Julie Harrell, Jim Harrell, Martha Hallman, Jimmie Francis, Bill Johnson, Russell Johnson and Walter Magee Jr.

Open house for women guests will be held in Parlor A, Adolphus, Thursday and Friday. In charge will be Mmes Clarence Bentley chairman; Clarence Guittard, cochairman; Dallas Blankenship, Clarence Crow, Joe Jones, Dan Johnston, Howard Dailey, Jake Newberry and C. K. Bullard.

Lawyers' families will take a trip to Six Flags Over Texas Thursday morning. Mrs. Talbot Rain and Mrs. O. Marcus Stubblefield are assisting Mrs. Richard Gray as transportation chairman. The Junior Bar Association Wives Club will be hostess group.

A LUNCHEON and Neiman-Marcus style show are scheduled for Friday in the Sheraton-

Dallas Hotel. Mrs. Robert Trott and Mrs. William M. Cramer head the committee in charge of the plans.

Registering the women during the convention will be Mmes Charles P. Storey, R. G. Storey Jr., Paul Adams Jr., Gordon Carpenter, James E. Coleman, Bob Mizell, Stanley Neely, Robert Paine, Barefoot Sanders, Walter Spradley and Ralph Wood Jr.

Other chairmen include Mrs. Ed Gossett of the distinguished guest committee and Mrs. Hawkins Golden of the public relations committee who has Mrs. Eugene Jericho as her cochairman.