

Monday Event To Mark Merger Of UF Agencies

The third anniversary of the Merger of Hope Cottage and the Children's Bureau, two United Fund agencies primarily concerned with placing children in foster homes, will be observed at a luncheon Monday in the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel.

The agency's retiring directors will be honored, and new officers and board members will be installed. Julius Schepps, outgoing president and retiring board member, will preside until the installation of the new president, George Young.

All former board members of both Hope Cottage and Children's Bureau have been invited. Reservations may be made as late as Monday morning.

Retiring from the board, in addition to Schepps, are P. T. Bee, T. C. Bateson, Edwin A. Nesbitt, Arthur L. Owens, the Rev. Thomas J. Shipp, John B. Stigel Jr., Fred M. Truett and William Woodburn.

Incoming board members are James B. Goodson, Mrs. C. Wesley Goyer, Curtis Horn, W. L. Lindholm, Dr. Harry Martin, Charles P. Schulze, Mrs. J. Simmons, Dr. Ronald Wideman, Mrs. Francis C. Tardy and D. W. Campbell.

Re-elected are the Rev. William A. Holmes and Michaux Nash Jr.
