

Southlanders Killed When Plane Crashes

The president of an El Segundo electronic and missile component firm and his advertising manager were killed Thursday night in the crash of a light plane on an Arizona fishing resort airstrip.

James E. Dillon, 45, of 11 W Wideloop Road, Rolling Hills, president of Darco Industries, Inc., and David Mosbacher, 42, of 351 Palos Verdes Blvd., were trapped in the flaming wreckage of a four-place Cessna.

According to Mohave County Sheriff Frank Porter, Dillon, piloting his own plane, attempted to land after dark during a rainstorm guided by automobile lights shining on the runway.

Dillon was an officer in the corporation operating the resort on the Arizona shore of Havasu Lake on the Colorado River.

Mexican C of C Installs President

Carlos Courrielche was installed as president of the Mexican Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles last night at a banquet attended by officials of Mexico and California.

The banquet was held in the Biltmore Ballroom. Guests of honor included Gov. Knight, Enrique Villegas, Lieutenant Governor of Baja California, Undersheriff Pete Pitchess and Adolfo G. Domínguez, Mexican Consul General.

Other officers installed were Lazaro Castro Jr. and Rafael Vega, vice-presidents; Milt Nava, secretary; Milton Webb, treasurer; Anthony Chavez, assistant secretary; Gilbert A. Leyvas, agent, and 25 directors.
